EXPECTATIONS

Media

The Waldorf philosophical approach believes that limiting media exposure allows for healthier attitudes towards learning and encourages age-appropriate development. Are you willing to limit your child's media viewing and listening time?

YES NO

Our Expectations

The healthy life of the school relies strongly on parents' /guardians' participation in their child's education. Class meetings give parents/guardians the opportunity to learn about the curriculum, share concerns and plan activities to support the social life of the class. It is expected that at least one guardian from the family attend all such evenings. Will you make that commitment?
